

Social Prescribing and Inequalities

Critical Conversations and Practical Approaches

26th May 2022, Online

<https://tinyurl.com/salfordspconf>

8.30 – 9.00am Networking and Posters
Welcome
9.00 – 9.10	Welcome from Dr Jane McAdam , Associate Dean Enterprise and Engagement, School of Health & Society, University of Salford
9.15 – 9.35	Opening remarks and overview of the day from Chair: Alison Page , CEO, Salford CVS
Keynote: Tackling Health and Social Inequalities: Key challenges and opportunities
9.35 – 10.35	Ranjit Senghera , Policy Delivery Lead for Health Inequalities, NHS England/Improvement Nicola Gitsham , Head of Healthcare Inequalities and Personalisation, NHS England/Improvement Michelle Pilling , Senior Lead, Social Prescribing, NHS England/Improvement
Keynote discussion: Developing an Equalities Toolkit for Social Prescribing
10.40 – 11.10	Alison Page & Bruce Poole , Salford CVS, Cormac Lawler , Salford Social Prescribing Hub, Jules Palfreyman , Greater Manchester Equality Alliance, Koser Khan , Applied Research Collaboration (ARC-NWC), Lancaster University, Jenny Brooks , Healthy London Partnership
Breakout Session 1
11.15 – 11.55	Room 1: Equalities Toolkit for Social Prescribing workshop Salford Social Prescribing Hub, Salford CVS, & others
11.15 – 11.55	Room 2: Services, Evaluation & Design Clare Mahoney, Dr Cheryl Lowes : Ways to Wellbeing for all: How social prescribing is helping to tackle health inequalities in Liverpool Heather Etheridge : Social prescribing across Greater Manchester: Find your own happy. What does that mean to people?
11.15 – 11.55	Room 3: Primary Care and social prescribing Jason Scott : Why always primary care? Exploring the potential for social prescribing in pre-hospital emergency and urgent care Caitlin Muhl : Tackling health inequities through social prescribing at a community health centre in Ontario, Canada
11.15 – 11.55	Room 4: Practical Solutions Workshop Hannah Timpson, Caroline Brett, Tara Kidd, Fatima Wobi : Exploiting without exploitation: How do we make the most of social prescribing in a sustainable way?

11.15 – 11.55	Room 5: Social Prescribing for All Rachael Musgrave: Strong Not Wrong: Connecting for change using an ABCD approach Maria Bailey & Carol Wright: The impact of access to GPs during the global pandemic on grievors and how long-term unresolved grief can impact whole health
11.55 – 12.45 Networking, Posters and Lunch Break
Panel: Linking the Social Prescribing Chain: How can we ensure social prescribing is integrated, localised, and works to reduce inequalities
12.45 – 13.45	Commissioner: Clare Mahoney, Liverpool CCG GP and PCN Advisor: Jaweeda Idoo, Alvanley Family Practice & Greater Manchester PCN Advisor Link worker: Caroline Lindsay, 'Wellbeing Matters' Salford Link worker support: Sian Brand, Steering Group Member, National Social Prescribing Network Voluntary / VCSE sector: Jessica Thompson, Director, City of Trees
Keynote: Stitching the Social Fabric: How communities and the voluntary sector help to reduce inequalities
13.50 – 14.20	Anne-Marie Morrison, National Association for Voluntary and Community Action Lucy Robertshaw, Doncaster Community Arts
Breakout Session 2
14.25 – 15.05	Room 1: Equalities toolkit for Social Prescribing workshop Salford Social Prescribing Hub, Salford CVS, & others
14.25 – 15.05	Room 2: Systems, Evaluation & Design Julie McCarthy: Beyond Social Prescribing: Living Well in Greater Manchester Cormac Lawler, Graeme Sherriff: Tackling fuel poverty in the Outer Hebrides through multi-agency social prescribing
14.25 – 15.05	Room 3: Making Social Prescribing Work Jane Holland, Andrew Litchfield: The Life Rooms Social Model of Health: Setting up a social prescribing service within a mental health and community NHS Trust Christiana Melam: Exploring emerging themes in tackling inequalities through the social prescribing link workers model
14.25 – 15.05	Room 4: Social Prescribing Tools Leeann Monk-Ozgul, Michelle Howarth, Denise Dillon: Meaningful data across social prescribing Sarah Bodell, Rachel Martin, Alan Mathew: Salford Social Prescribing Hub tool & training: Responding to the national agenda
14.25 – 15.05	Room 5: Social Prescribing for All Dawn Mitchell: Social Prescribing Youth Network (SPYN): Social Prescribing for all, creating service models that work for Children and Young People Adam Mars: Everything seemed women orientated: Masculinity, meaning and social prescribing
Final plenary: Key themes and next steps
15.20 – 16.00	Chair: Alison Page